FF Cord of the Rocky Bur Mining Compensation, the control of the Califeria correspondent of The Tribune. That correspondent is J. Winchester for the theorem and the Galiferia correspondent of the Tribune of the Grass Valley Gold Mining Company. We had hoped our recent card in The Tribune would have protected us from further assuming from that quarter. We now say that the statement trajecting our Company, made in Mr. W.'s letter, dated September 28, and published in The Tribune of the 2d mat. In a series of minispresentations. There has been "no failure of the concern;" some of the Directo & do reside in California; the cannal was fixed at one million in good latth, and the concern; some of the Directo & do reside in California; the cannal was fixed at one million in good latth, and therefor increase of capital of the Grass Valley Gold Mining Company to a quarter of a million, when the value of their claims is comisiered, is evidence that ours is not too large for practical purposes. Our agent at Grass Valley is not in bankruptey, so far as we know he owes nothing there; funds have been supplied to meet all expenses; Mr. WHITNEY has not abandoned his charge, nor has he entered into other business at San Francisco.

We are obliged to Mr. Winchester for stating to the public that our property can "be made protinable and pay a good divide no upon even a million of doliars"—for our own feeling time to the reflect, with the characture he has given us, might not be received with confidence. We cannot return the compliment; his "claims" are regarded as of lifter walls. He cumployed our machinery to test them, and ten time of his quarts rock produced a of experiment and preparation."

members and efficiency in cases of emergency, will yield the palm to no single corps.

But to be canoid, there is one species of duty for which we cannot claim to rossess a very deep affection. We allow to the so-called "Regimental Drills." For the benefit of those young men who have a partiality for military experience, we will with brevity describe one. It consists in marching from the armoryto Tompkins or Madison-square, and there, under the direction of competent staff officers, make a series of military instance from the mour of 2? M. until dark, when all partics being pretty well tired out, the performance is ended and the school dismissed, the gentlemen of the staff radia know under the full conviction of their becoming, at no very distant period, "Napoleons," and of basking in the "Sun of Austerlinz."

In conclusion, we best to add, and without egotism, that we have ever endeavored to cultivate friendly fositings with our brother soldiers, and that when upon visits to distant sister cities, the New-York City Guard have always created a favorable impression for, and have never dimmed the bright escutcheon of our metropolise citizen soldiery, and while we claim no excellency over the humblest corps of our city, we will tolerate no assumption of superiority emanding from any source.

Armory, No. 600 Broadway, Nov. 16, 1352
To the Public: The members of the CIFY GUARD, through the endersigned Committee, desire to lay before the jubic a sestement of the manner in which they were deprived of the Fost of Homor by GEN. SANDEADR.

In the occasion of the Usequines of Hom. DANIEL WEBSTER, and, in so doing, would remark that they have deferred making an earner statement in a disposition to abstain from causing any personal feetings or demonstrate of our own, from interfering with our darse to join with the authorities on the eccasion of public sympathy in honer that thisterious Patriot, the late Secretary of Sale.

In a letter addressed to the Special Committee of the Common Council, application was used for the appointment of Guard of Honor' on the said occasion, as as always been the custom, and wherein we claimed our ability to perform the said duty in a manner to meet the appropriation of the public. We also append to Gen. Sandford in a proper manner. For the knownable mila nees brought to been upon the Committee of the Common Council, not withstanoing a strong competition, we had the gratication to be manimously selected by them for the fost of Honor, for which we be g to tender an evidence of the Guard's apprehension of an official compliment. We were samewhat surprised than to receive a communication from the Screenay of the Special Committee (Mr. Chamber) as Gen. Sandford and refused to detail the said corps to the post assigned them by the Committee."

Thus does the keed of our First Division of Militia take advantage of a slight difficulty in our Regiment, and deprive us of a jointon to which we were in every way fairly entitled.

We confess ourselves somewhat it a loss to account for this distinction from teen. Sandford. BROADWAY THEATER-E. A. MARSHALL, we confess ourselves somewhat it a loss to account for this distinction from Oen. Sandford.

We context suppose for a moment, that the head of our "glorious Division" would so for exhibit so total an ignorance of Military Law, to say nothing of the dictates of common sense, as to make the assertion that, because our Caption was under arrest, "the Compeny was in disgrace! Not charity would let due to attribute the "opinion" of one so lamed in the Law, rather to the weakness medical to a "little authority" and to a consciousness of ministry inferiority, than to a just appreciation of a soldier's pride—his bener. befor.

To make a detailed statement of the circumstances of the arrest of our Captain would seem a useless task. Suffice it to say, that we consider a military agreement as binding as a roll of the part of the part of the part of the first mourning a line responsibility on the part of the part of the first part." We out obeyed the command of our Captain in leaving the ground, and for which he alone is responsible—a position we doem him fully capable of, and from which he was never known to shrink, even in the face of any "military humbur."

a position we deem him fully capable of, and from which no was never known to shrink, even in the face of any "military humbug."

In paintant, we acknowledge the receipt of a first lesson on the outy of an other to use his discretion in executing an order of his supernor.

After leaving the ground on that occasion, we remained at our Armory a sufficient time to receive any order from the Lieut. Colonel, and not receiving any communication from him proceeded upon an independent parade.

While we feel under deep and nasting obligations to Gon. Sat droit for his comprimentary remarks and mismationarce specting us, we are decidedly obliged to question the sincerity of hisreasons for not giving us the post of honor, and lean to the optimen that if the same objection existed in regard to some other corps of the "glorious Division," it would not have been deemed sufficient objection to prevent them from performing a duty statifying to themselves and creditable to the citizen solutery.

During our recent difficulty several persons, who upon "field day" occasions of the First Division are dressed up in a little brief authority, and are fond of stratting their exarescent hour upon horseback, have taken occasion to make remarks derogatory to the Guard's military discipline, their regimental duty, &c., &c. To these gentlemen-warriers our response is very biref. We have upon all occasions of riots, conflaginitors, and when the peace of the city was meaced, been prompt and willing in our duty; and for numbers and efficiency in cases of emergency, will yield the palm to no single corps.
